DATA RELEASE POLICY

Owen Roe O'Neill's has a responsibility of care for the well being of all its players and members especially our Youth members. We also have a duty to protect certain information regarding our members and to use it in a responsible manner.

As such our coaches need to have access to certain details in case of an emergency. Details such as parental or guardian contacts, these adults telephone and mobile numbers and any medical condition a member may have must be made available to certain individuals so that, should the need arise, contact can be made and appropriate medical personnel can be made aware of known conditions.

Such details will be provided to team coaches at the start of the season and these coaches will have an obligation and responsibility to protect these details under our Data Protection Policy.

Players contact details and any medical conditions will be released to a member of the relevant team management at the beginning of the season and these are only to be used in case of emergency.

Contact details will be stored on the GAA's Servasport Membership Registration database and on the Club's GAA Webmail system which can only be accessed by nominated Committee members, ie Chairperson, Secretary, PRO, Youth Officer, Coaching Officer and Children's Officer.
