

Owen Roe O'Neill's SAC Leckpatrick

SOCIAL, CULTURAL AND COMMUNITY OFFICER

Aim

Help develop awareness of and respect for heritage and traditions and provide opportunities for Club and Community members to actively participate in music, song, dance and other areas of heritage.

Help place the Club at the centre of the Community to act as a motivational force for Community regeneration and progress

Deliver a programme of cultural activities at Club and community level -

- Help deliver cultural/heritage events on a quarterly basis
- Encourage the development of dancing and music tuition at the Club
- Organise an annual ceilidh dance as Club/Community event
- Develop Irish language classes at Youth and Adult level within the Club
- Encourage awareness of local heritage through school and Club projects – using townlands, history, traditions and photographic exhibitions
- Help develop Scor at Youth and Adult level
- Provide a cultural event as part of an annual Club/Community festival
- Re-establish the Drama Group as part of heritage and recreational activity at Club/Community level
- Encourage the use of Irish at Committee meetings and in Club notices

Develop a programme of Club and community activities that provides for greater recreational opportunities and enhanced interaction -

- Actively promote awareness of Club plans and activities throughout the wider Community

Owen Roe O'Neill's SAC Leckpatrick

SOCIAL, CULTURAL AND COMMUNITY OFFICER

- Work with local Community leaders to help develop Club/Community interaction programmes for young and old
- Organise an annual Community Welcome Night at the Club
- Help develop programmes of recreational activities for males and females and provide leadership in delivering programmes on healthy living and wellness
- Seek contacts and co-operation with other Clubs/organisations in providing sporting and recreational opportunities for Club and Community members
- Help organise an annual Festival to increase the feel good factor in the Community
- Produce quarterly Club newsletters aimed at Club and Community and distributed through schools, churches and shops